

BREAKING NEWS!!!

Our own Professor Jonathan Tsetimi, Director Center for Research and International Programmes, was elected today (6/5/24), as the Vice-President (South-South) of the newly formed, National Association of Artificial Intelligence Practitioners (NAAIP). In the keenly contested election, his profile was presented among 14 other professors, mostly from federal and first-generation universities. The election was under the auspices of the NUC's Virtual Institute for Capacity Building in Higher Education (VICBHE), The sponsors of the programme were, Tetfund, the National Open University of Nigeria(NOUN) and the Association of African Universities (AAU). Prof Tsetimi was sworn in a virtual ceremony today witnessed across the globe. A big congratulations to Professor Tsetimi!

Results of the voting for the officers of NAAIP

Total number of voters=670

Office	Winner	No. of votes	% of votes cast
President	Professor Eyitope Ogunbodede	300	44.8%
Vice-President North East	Professor Shehu Adamu Iya	204	30.4%
Vice-President North West	Professor Nasiru Maiturare	233	34.8%
Vice-President North Central	Professor Emmanuel Samu Dandaura	100	14.9%
Vice-President South West	Professor Smaranda Olarinde	198	29.6%
Vice-President South East	Professor Joy Eyisi	174	26.0%
Vice-President South South	Professor Jonathan Tsetimi	78	11.6%
General Secretary	Dr. Kehinde Abiola	142	21.2%
Assistant General Secretary	Professor Aleruchi Chuku	100	14.9%
Treasurer	Professor Hadijat Adenola Yahaya	174	26.0%
Publicity Secretary	Professor Nkechinyere Nwokoye	141	21.0%

Source: Courtesy of Emeritus Professor Peter Okebukola, Facilitator General, NUC-VICBHE